We the owners of 1261070 Alberta inc o/a Final Touch Decorating and RCI Coating Ltd. are pleased to announce that our companies have entered a definitive business merger.

We have now legally rebranded under the trade names FTDRCI Calgary and FTDRCI Edmonton.

This union will enable us to function with greater efficiency and further strengthen our position in the market, while continuing to provide you with excellent service and flawless results.

We will now service and operate in Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan, and North West Territories and continue to offer the wide range of services to meet the needs of our existing and future clientele.

While we will immediately start running under the FTDRCI Calgary and FTDRCI Edmonton brands, our phone number and emails will automatically be re-routed. We can continue AP/AR activities under the predecessor companies for the duration of the existing contracts and will make necessary changes in the weeks to come for our newest opportunities.
